

The Fabulous Festival of Fringe Film

Coming Events

July 20 at 9:15 (Opening)

@ Sauble Beach

- Premiere of Saugeen Films made during the Film Farm & The Fabulous Festival of Fringe Film Workshop
- Wapikoni Films
- Walking in the Footsteps of Our Ancestors by Allison Ladd

Programmed by Adrian Kahgee & Saugeen Youth

July 21 at 6:30pm

@ James Mason Centre

• Community Feast

- New Media Program

Programmed by Caroline Klimek

July 21 at 9:30pm

@ Saugeen Amphitheatre

- Where Does Art Begin by Aanmitaagzi

Mark July 20 & 21, 2018 on your calendar because you won't want to miss this year's events!

It Takes A Community

An evening of film on Sauble Beach July 20 features Adrian Kahgee's program, "It Takes a Community". Elder Shirley John and Chief Anoquot will officially open the Fabulous Festival of Fringe Film. It will be the first chance to see three brand new films made by Jennifer Kewageshig, Sharon Isaac & Kelsey Diamond, Emily Kewageshig & Taylor Cameron, and Natalka Pucan during "Saugeen Takes On Film".

Then check out a few short videos that Natalie Root has chosen from Wapikoni mobile film, and end the evening with a viewing of "Walking in the Footsteps of Our Ancestors" by Allison Ladd of Sage & Sea Co. (This is the documentary of the 2017 Water Walk.)

Community Feast!!

Bring your appetite to the Rec Centre on Saturday, July 21st because the festival is inviting the community to a feast!

While you're there you can try some Virtual Reality headsets and discover some 3-D films; then, all the way from Nippissing First Nation, the production "Serpent People" by Aanmitaagzi. The live performance starts at 9:30 at the Amphitheatre.

Rebeka Tabobondung of Muskrat Magazine has put together a program for the film fest, playing in Durham Thursday, July 26. See fabfilmfest.ca for more info on this and many other programs!

Water Walkers from the documentary "Walking in the Footsteps of Our Ancestors"
by Allison Ladd (Sage & Sea Co.)

