

Indigenous Youth Sports Award

Four bursaries of $750 each are available to local Indigenous youth who are nominated by one or more people from their community and who:

- show outstanding abilities in one or more sports-related activities and,
- have maintained average or above-average school grades while excelling in a sporting activity and,
- have contributed to their community through volunteer work with other youth, elders or the community at large.

Nominations must include:

- Name, age, school, grade and complete address of the nominated youth. Please also include telephone number and name of parent/guardian.
- A brief (half page) write up on how the youth meets the above criteria in the nominator's opinion and thoughts as to how the money could make a difference to the nominee's sporting aspirations
- The nominator's name and complete address
- Nominations must be from an individual in an official capacity (i.e., program supervisor, teacher, guidance councillor, clergy, youth worker)

Nominations are to be sent to Christine John at Bruce Power
christine.john@brucepower.com | 519-361-2673 ext. 16745

Nominations will be accepted from Jan. 15 - Feb. 14
Not open to previous recipients.

BrucePower
Innovation at work