

Indigenous Education and Work Experience Opportunity

SEPTEMBER 2020

Are you interested in a career at Bruce Power? Bruce Power is providing sponsored tuition to 10 Indigenous students, starting September 2020.

Bruce Power offers a wide range of career opportunities to suit a variety of interests and skill sets. Below is a list of education programs for a few key roles at Bruce Power. If you are interested in another program that is not listed, or have additional questions, please contact Bruce Power's Indigenous Employment Training Specialist by email: IndigenousEmployment@brucepower.com.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Send the following documents to IndigenousEmployment@brucepower.com:

- Updated resume
- Verification of post-secondary acceptance (not offer letter)
- 500 word essay about yourself and your career goals

BRUCE POWER CAREER OPPORTUNITY	PROGRAM EXAMPLES
Nuclear Operator in Training	Power Engineering Technology (2 year - Georgian College)
Radiation Protection or Radiation Safety	Chemical Production and Power Engineering Technology (3 year - Lambton College)
Engineer Trainee	Applied Nuclear Science and Radiation Safety (2 year - Algonquin College)
Shift Control Technician Apprentice	Engineering (4 year University)
Chemical Technologist	Electrical Engineering Technologist (3 year - Georgian College)
	Chemical Laboratory Technology (3 year - St. Clair College)

This opportunity closes April 15, 2020.

How to Apply: Interested candidates must apply by email at: IndigenousEmployment@brucepower.com. Deadline to apply is April 15, 2020 for the 2020/2021 academic year.

Selection: Successful candidates will be notified by April 22, 2020. They will participate in a four month paid placement on the Bruce Power site, pending security clearance and completion of the first year of a post-secondary program.

Interested candidates should visit the post-secondary websites and adhere to admission requirements.

