

MARINE TRAINING START AN EXCITING CAREER!

Georgian College Centre for Marine Training & Research along with the Huronia Area Aboriginal Management Board are partnering to offer marine courses. This free training program will help prepare you for any career in the marine industry.

To be eligible you must: be member of Saugeen First Nation or the Chippewas of Nawash and obtain a medical prior to start date.

Full course participation is encouraged and estimated to be complete within one month. Registration dates:

Tuesday March 10th 10:00am-3:00pm Chippewas of Nawash
Band Office

Wednesday March 11th 10:00am-3:00pm
Saugeen Employment & Training Centre.

Training will take place at Georgian College –
Owen Sound campus

Contact: Hillary Trudeau 519-376-9400 or employmentc2@bellnet.ca

Training starts
March 23 2020

Obtain training in just one month!

Lunch and Transportation provided

Training allowance available for eligible
participants

Call 519-376-9400

Courses Offered:

- Marine Basic First Aid
- STCW Basic Safety
- STCW Proficiency in Survival Craft
- Radio License
- Security (VPWSR)
- Basic Seamanship
- SDV-BS (MED A3)
- Small Vessel Operator Proficiency