

CHI-MIIGWETCH!

On behalf of the family of Beulah Johnson,

We would like to express our deepest gratitude for the support provided during our mom's final months and at the time of her passing. The food, cards, flowers, and messages will always be remembered. For those that donated to mom's charities of choice, we thank you.

Mom had an excellent palliative team who helped us to understand her changing medical needs and guided us through her journey while showing unbelievable compassion. The team at Chapman House was just as amazing and compassionate as mom's time grew near. We couldn't thank these teams enough for their support.

Saugeen's Home and Community Care team was excellent to work with during mom's changing condition. We appreciate your assistance and contribution for the meal after the funeral.

Thank you to the pallbearers: Scott Roote, Trevor Roote, Dave Rice, Derek Roote, Brody Roote, Scott Bell and Kelly Roote (honorary).

For the eulogy, a huge thank you to Brian Death, who conveyed mom's life, stories and milestones in a way that celebrated her life's accomplishments and proudest moments.

A heartfelt thank you to Rev. Gerry Hofstetter, who did a wonderful job leading the funeral service and to Christine John and Doran Ritchie for sharing their songs with us, at mom's request.

Thank you to the Eagleson Funeral Home for their services and for accommodating mom's final wishes. Also, thank you to the Saugeen Maintenance Crew for the cemetery preparation.

Finally, we need to say chi-miigwetch to Pat, Sue and our dad for their tremendous support as mom was making her final journey and also to the family and friends who reached out before, during and after mom's passing.

On behalf of the family of Beulah Johnson,

Mark and Marsha
